GCSB 2022

Ambrose gave an update on the conference logistics as it pertains directly to the roundtables. There will be a moderator for each of the 3 breakout sessions as follows:

- Breakout Regional Group #1 (Penrose 1 Room): Australia, Bolivia, Mexico, South Africa (Moderator: Jacob Betros)
- Breakout Regional Group #2 (Penrose 2 Room): Argentina, Canada, New Zealand, Paraguay, US (Moderator: Monica Hadarits)
- Breakout Regional Group #3 (Mattie Silks Room) Brazil, Colombia, Europe (Moderator: Roz Davis)

Moderators are requested to contact members within their respective groups to establish presentation order and questions to prepare in advance, and collect all slides to forward to GRSB on or before Friday, November 4th. Moderators will also introduce each of their presenters to come to deliver their presentation (15 minutes or less). There will be translation available for the presentations. The request was made to have the presentations in English; however, they can be delivered in Spanish.

For the Roundtable Celebration, there will be 6'x3" display tables will be provided for each Roundtable sponsor, as well as 24" monitors to play your videos (HDMI cables and power strips) will be available). This will be a great opportunity for you to share and discuss your current projects and activities around the goals. Be sure to have materials available with your contact information.

Ambrose also shared that SureHarvest will be at the conference and would like the opportunity to connect with each roundtable. Roundtables are encouraged to have one-on-one connections during a break or meal. Please let Ambrose know if you would like to setup a time.

Petre shared that Peter Byck, a keynote speaker, will also be sharing a sneak peak of his video, the 1st of a four-part series about inventive farmers and scientists building a path to solving climate change challenges. The showing will be on Monday, Nov. 7th, immediately following the Communicators Summit in the Penrose Ballroom.

Social Media Updates

Lasack advised of having continual posts throughout the conference on both Facebook and Instagram. Lasack would like to connect with each roundtable member, and also take photos and create videos and live feeds for content sharing. Lasack will send her complete contact information for each roundtable member.

AOB

Petre advised that an email for the 2023 Board Nominations was sent out to all member organization Primary Contacts. If you did not receive it, please let GRBSB know. Voting will commence soon.

COP27 – Petre advised that GRBSB members, Bob Lowe and Max Makuvise will be present during the 1st week, and Petre and Eisele will be present in the 2nd week with a potential 3rd pass available. Petre will arrive on Nov. 12 in time for Ag Day. There are a number of panel discussions and side events that either Petre or Eisele will be presenting, to include: UNFCCC, African Union Pavilion, IICA Pavilion, as well as with the US Dairy Export Council, and EcoSecurities.

Measuring and Reporting Process – Petre advised SureHarvest will be presenting at the conference and the next SureHarvest call with the roundtables will be in late November to discuss next steps.
